

DIANE DEMETRE

Entrepreneur, entertainer, media personality, author, keynote speaker, and Master Mindset Mentor

INTRODUCTION

Diane Demetre's success during her 40-year career working in the entertainment industry and corporate and business worlds qualifies her as a thought leader with a suite of skills that teaches people how to master their mindset and manifest the destiny they desire most.

An award-winning author, Diane's recent book – Master Mindset – takes readers on a journey and provides ways to master your mindset through the Coronavirus pandemic in just 21 days. This inspirational book shows people how to transform from fear to feeling fabulous by how they think, feel and act.

Diane believes that while the Coronavirus is one of the biggest biological threats that humanity has ever faced, it is also one of the greatest opportunities for us all to wake up.

ABOUT DIANE

Diane's diverse career began as a school teacher before she moved into a full-time career as a choreographer, director, and dancer, working in television, theatre and cabaret. She was the Assistant Director & Choreographer for Australia's first multi-million-dollar extravaganzas, Starz and Galaxies, and was the Assistant Choreographer for the Mrs. World Pageant.

With significant television and theatre experience, Diane has become one of Australia's premier orators in the country. With her engaging style and vast knowledge of mindset and energy psychology, she shows people how to dare to be more and live better lives, making her an excellent interview for your audience.

Following her successful stage career, Diane dedicated herself to helping others improve their well-being and reduce stress as a life coach and a stress and life skills therapist. She applied these skills to a broader audience by returning to the stage as a prominent keynote speaker, trainer, radio, and television presenter.

Never straying too far from her performative roots, Diane famously embodied the pseudonym the 'Goddess of Love' starring on Gold FM's Nitemix program broadcast to millions of listeners nationally and appeared on Channel 10/Foxtel's Beauty and the Beast program with Stan Zemanek and Doug Mulray.

After working as a media personality, Diane owned a successful national business which still operates today providing services for Australia's biggest airline company. Described as the "Queen of logistics," as the General Manager she trains staff in leadership skills, human resources, customer service and quality management. She is also an award-winning author of 11 published books.

#1 IN LEADERSHIP & FEMALE ADVOCACY

Diane was awarded the 2019 Leadership in Entertainment Creative Arts and Media Industry award in recognition for her leadership throughout her extensive career. Most notably Diane was a significant figure in advancing Australian industrial relations laws within the entertainment industry. It was Diane's high-profile sexual harassment and wrongful dismissal cases in the late 1980s which helped pave the way for further action and marked the first public #metoo incident in Australia.

MASTER MINDSET SHIFTING HUMAN PERSPECTIVE FOR 2021

In Master Mindset (the book), Diane shows us how to make that shift from fear to fabulousness in just 21 days, through her powerful messages of hope, awakening, and mastery for humanity. Master Mindset was written right in the middle of the global COVID pandemic to empower people in this unprecedented time of isolation and government-imposed restrictions. Her mantra is to shift our mindset from #Coronavirus to #Consciousness.

Diane teaches the methodologies from her book in her highly successful online course The Master Mindset Method. Blending key insights from science, psychology, personal empowerment, and spirituality, the knowledge Diane shares is gained from over forty years of teaching, speaking, coaching, counselling, and leading teams of people to master their mindset.

Diane Demetre is on a mission to shift human perspective one mind at a time, one business at a time to a Master Mindset, by daring us to be more, to do more of what matters and have more of what counts.

HOLLYWOOD LEGEND CHARLES HESTON

In 1996, Diane was approached to be the MC for Hollywood legend Charles Heston's autobiography launch event in Sydney. Diane recalls, "... when I stood aside to allow him to access the lectern, he leaned in close to me and said, 'Well done, and that's my professional opinion'. To be so close to him sent shivers up my spine, let alone to receive such a professionally significant compliment."

SPIRITUAL CONNECTION HIS HOLINESS DALAI LAMA

"When I bowed my head on his approach, His Holiness took my hand and moved to a row of chairs. Drawing me beside him, he nodded to his entourage. Though they were obviously surprised by his move, they hurried everyone into position for a group photograph. Throughout this shuffling, he clung to my hand, chatting and laughing with me. I was dumbstruck. He was being with me. His grip was certain, his skin was soft, cool and delicate. We sat straight-backed like children in a school photo, me with the biggest grin. His hand never released mine until after the photographer nodded."

BRINGING VEGAS TO AUSTRALIAN AUDIENCES

As she reflects on the highlights of her expansive career, Diane lists her role as the Assistant Director and Choreographer to leading Las Vegas director, Jerry Jackson, as the pièce de résistance.

Together, Diane and Jerry staged the first two multi- million dollar extravaganzas at Conrad Jupiter's Casino on the Gold Coast.
